

2021 In Review

In the last five years, Ready for School has been able to increase its impact because it has diversified its income and increased it by 33%.

OTHER WINS:

- For the first time ever, Ready for School board member responded by delivering 50 bilingual home learning kits to wait-listed children.
- Ready for School brought on its diversified funding, including multi-year program revenue generations.
- In partnership with Ready for School, Lakeshore Habitat for Humanity began offering mini family libraries to young families who are new homeowners through the home ownership program.
- Ready for School was identified by a national organization as the team to lead expansion for an evidence-based model, Reach Out and Read.
- Ready for School, dba Reach Out and Read West Michigan, expanded to serve four counties, including its' home geography of Ottawa.